

	Estimated cost-effectiveness (relative to our level of knowledge)	SDG	Primary benefits of the intervention	Ease of communication	Ongoing monitoring	Room for more	Other major considerations
Malaria Consortium (SMC) program	7	Moderate	3 Under-5 deaths averted and possible increased income in adulthood	Strong	Strong	High: could absorb millions of dollars	Relatively low proportion (~35%) of global gap for program is filled
Helen Keller International (VAS)	9	Moderate	3 Under-5 deaths averted	Strong	Moderate	High: could absorb millions of dollars	Learning benefits
Deworm the World	12	High	8 Possible increased income in adulthood	Strong	Strong	Moderate: could absorb millions of dollars
GiveDirectly	1	High	12 Immediate increase in consumption and assets	Strong	Strong	Very high: could absorb over 100 million dollars

Organization	Modeled cost-of SDG	Primary benefits of the intervention	Quality of the evidence	Ongoing monitoring
Malaria Consortium	8.8	3 Averting deaths of children under 5	Strong	Strong
Evidence Action	4	8 Possibly increasing income in adulthood	Strong	Strong
Helen Keller International	6.4	3 Averting deaths of children under 5	Strong	Moderate
GiveDirectly	1	12 Immediately increasing income and assets	Strong	Strong https://blog.givewell.org/2018/11/26/our-updated-top-charities-for-giving-season-2018/							